ANNUAL DAY

ANNUAL DAY

The 5th Annual Day of Sanskriti Kids was a grand celebration held on December 13, 2025, from 5:00 PM onwards at the school ground. The event was graced by esteemed personalities, including Director Shri Vikranth Terala, Chief Guest Brigadier C. S. Vidyasagar, Principal of Sanskriti the School Dr. Mamta Singh, and Principal of Sanskriti Kids Ms. Priscilla Pallavi, along with board members of the Terala family. The evening commenced with an impressive march parade, followed by a floral welcome and the traditional lamp lighting ceremony. The atmosphere was further enriched by a musical invocation song performed by our talented students and music faculty, Ms. Navya. The event was a testament to the vibrant spirit and dedication of both the students and staff, marking another milestone in the school's journey.

CLASSICAL DANCE

The evening commenced with a captivating classical dance performance, marking the beginning of the 5th Annual Day of Sanskriti Kids. The theme for the event was "Incredible India," a tribute to the rich cultural tapestry and diversity of the nation. In keeping with Indian tradition, the proceedings began with a prayer to Lord Ganesha, the revered deity known as the remover of obstacles and the harbinger of auspicious beginnings. The enchanting dance, filled with grace and expression, set the tone for an unforgettable celebration of India's heritage, showcasing the talents and creativity of the young participants. The atmosphere was vibrant and filled with anticipation as families and friends gathered to witness the unfolding of a truly memorable evening.

EMPOWERING ACHIEVEMENT

Following the captivating classical dance performance, our principal, Ms. Priscilla Pallavi, presented the annual report, highlighting the impressive growth and achievements of our school across multiple areas. The report showcased our school's recognition at various prestigious platforms, the numerous awards we have won, and the unique initiatives that set us apart. The stage was further honored by the presence of our director, Shri Vikranth Terala, who shared insightful words that inspired and motivated us. His address emphasized the commitment to excellence and innovation that our institution strives for, leaving the audience with a renewed sense of pride and purpose.

INTRO SKIT GHAR YAAD AATA HAIN

The skit titled "Ghar Yaad Aata Hain" was a heartfelt portrayal of the lives of Indian students settled abroad, highlighting their emotional journey as they connect with their loved ones back home over the phone. As the students navigated their new environment, they were often reminded of the comforting embrace of their homeland, evoking a sense of nostalgia and longing. Through lively dialogues and expressive performances, the students conveyed the universal theme of homesickness and the deep-rooted connection to one's origins. The act beautifully culminated with the students deciding to return to India, reinforcing the idea that no matter where life takes you, the heart always finds its way back home. This evocative skit left the audience reflecting on the importance of cultural roots and the warmth of familial bonds.

NURSERY WELCOME DANCE

Our tiny nursery kids truly charmed everyone with their adorable welcome dance. Their enthusiasm was infectious as they danced their hearts out, captivating the audience with their expressive moves and radiant smiles. Each child moved with such joy and sincerity, bringing a smile to every face in the audience. Their performance was not just a dance; it was a delightful display of innocence and happiness that left everyone mesmerized. The children's dedication and energy made the occasion unforgettable, showcasing the beauty of pure, unbridled joy.

PPJ SANKRANTHI DANCE

Our tiny stars of PPJ have beautifully showcased Sankranti, a vibrant festival significant for farmers. This celebration marks the harvest season's onset, symbolizing winter's end and longer days. The children's delightful performance captured the gratitude and joy of Sankranti, a time when farmers thank nature for its bounty. Families gather to prepare sweets and fly kites, fostering community spirit. The children's enactment highlights these traditions and emphasizes the festival's role in bringing people closer to their roots, reminding us of hard work, prosperity, and nature's cycles.

PUNJABI PERFORMANCE

The Grade 1A students truly brought the spirit of Punjab to life on stage with their energetic performance set to the iconic "Rang De Basanti" song. Their vibrant bhangra moves, sastriya kal, and infectious chants of "balle balle" and "chak de phatte" filled the auditorium with energy and excitement. The powerful Punjabi beats resonated throughout the venue, almost making the stage come alive and compelling the audience to dance in their seats. It was a captivating display of cultural pride and youthful enthusiasm that left a lasting impression on everyone present.

NAVRATRI AND EID PERFORMANCE

Next in line were our Grade 1B students, who, through their vibrant performances, celebrated two significant festivals: Navaratri and Eid. Their lively and enthusiastic participation not only showcased the cultural richness of these festivals but also captivated the hearts of everyone present. Each performance was a delightful blend of tradition and youthful exuberance, demonstrating the students' understanding and appreciation of diverse cultures. Their efforts not only won applause but also fostered a spirit of unity and joy among the audience, highlighting the beauty of celebrating diversity through art and performance.

PPI CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCE.

The PPI kids delivered a remarkable performance celebrating Christmas with a unique twist! This event blended traditional festive cheer with lively dance moves, creating a joyful atmosphere. The rhythmic dance moves showcased the performers' energy and enthusiasm, capturing the essence of the celebration. Events like these not only entertain but also promote cultural understanding and appreciation, weaving communities together in a rich tapestry of diversity. The creativity and dedication of the performers were truly commendable, adding to the magic of the holiday season with classics like "Jingle Bells" and "Merry Christmas."

UNITY IN DIVERSITY

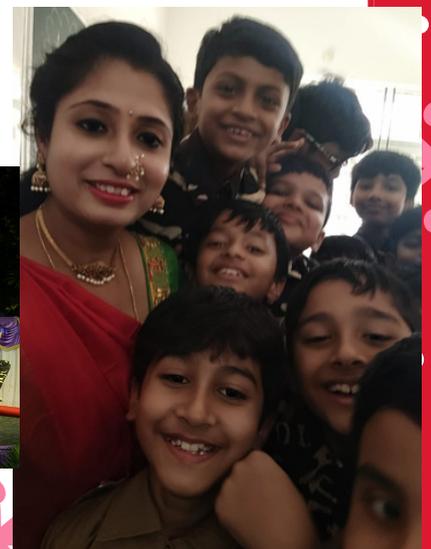

The Grade 2 students dazzled the audience with a vibrant performance celebrating "Unity in Diversity," showcasing the rich cultural tapestry of India. Through a medley of songs in various Indian languages, they highlighted the nation's linguistic diversity, each melody resonating with the unique rhythm and essence of its region. Complementing the musical journey, the students performed an array of dance forms, from the classical grace of Bharatanatyam to the energetic beats of Bhangra, illustrating the country's varied dance traditions. This lively and colorful presentation not only entertained but also educated, reminding everyone of the beauty found in India's cultural diversity and the harmonious unity that binds it all together.

OP. SINDOOR

The 5th Annual Day celebration was truly an extraordinary event, highlighted by our exclusive and star performance, "Operation Sindoora." This powerful presentation was based on a real-life mission, showcasing the unwavering dedication and valor of the Indian military and army personnel who tirelessly protect our nation. Our students embodied the spirit of these brave individuals, demonstrating their commitment to service and patriotism through a captivating and heartfelt performance. The audience was moved by the authenticity and passion displayed on stage, reminding us all of the sacrifices made by our armed forces. This event not only celebrated the talents of our students but also served as a tribute to the heroes who safeguard our freedom.

CHIEF GUEST SPEECH AND FELICITATION

ES Vidyasagar's career exemplifies dedication and service. After earning a Mechanical Engineering degree from Sri Venkateswara University, he joined the Indian Military Academy and became a Lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers in 1972. Over 32 years in the Indian Army, he excelled in various roles, enhancing his skills and significantly contributing to operations. His education at the Defence Services Staff College in 1985 further sharpened his strategic acumen. Retiring as Chief Engineer (Air Force) of the Western Air Command, he continued serving by supporting ex-servicemen as Director of Sainik Welfare in Andhra Pradesh. His commitment to veterans and widows is steadfast. Recently, as a chief guest, he shared insights on war and the Indian military, earning gratitude from Director Mr. Vikranth Terala and Principal Ms. Priscilla Pallavi.

PRIZE DISTRIBUTION

The prize distribution ceremony was a highlight of the annual day, celebrating the outstanding achievements of students across various fields. The event was a vibrant showcase of talent, dedication, and hard work, as students were recognized for their excellence in academics, sports, arts, and other extracurricular activities. The atmosphere was filled with excitement and pride as the chief guest, a distinguished figure, presented the awards. Their words of encouragement and admiration inspired the young achievers to continue striving for excellence. The event not only acknowledged individual accomplishments but also fostered a sense of community and motivation among students, encouraging them to pursue their passions with determination.

MARATHA WARRIOR PERFORMANCE

The Grade 2 students put on an impressive performance, celebrating the valor of the Maratha warriors, Shivaji Maharaj and Sambhaji Maharaj. The stage was beautifully adorned with banners proclaiming "Jai Shivaji, Jai Sambhaji," paying homage to these legendary figures. The young performers captured the essence of bravery and leadership, bringing history to life with their passionate portrayal and expressive acting. The audience was genuinely moved by the heartfelt tribute, as the students' enthusiasm and dedication shone through every scene. This performance not only educated but also inspired pride in the rich Maratha heritage among all who attended.

INDIAN POLICE

The 5th Annual Day celebration was truly a memorable event, with each performance leaving a lasting impression on the audience. Among them, the tribute to the Indian police stood out as a heartfelt and spirited acknowledgment of their unwavering commitment and bravery. Our students of grade 3 embodying the courage and vigor of Bollywood heroes, brought the stage to life with their peppy and dynamic moves. This performance was not just an artistic expression but a powerful salute to the tireless efforts of those who protect and serve the nation. The audience was left in awe, inspired by the students' energy and the profound message of gratitude toward the police force.

FIGHT OF FREEDOM

AGAINST BRITISH RAJ

The grade 4 students delivered a moving and entertaining tribute to our freedom fighters through a captivating performance. They skillfully depicted the courageous struggle of our freedom fighters against the British Raj, bringing history to life in a way that was both educational and heartfelt. The performance was a vibrant blend of cultural expressions, featuring the dynamic energy of salsa dance alongside traditional regional dances, creating a rich tapestry of movement and emotion. Powerful dialogues further enhanced the narrative, allowing the young performers to convey the spirit and determination of those who fought for our country's independence. This thoughtful act not only honored the sacrifices of our freedom fighters but also inspired a sense of pride and appreciation in the audience.

NATIONAL MATHEMATICS DAY

National Mathematics Day was celebrated with a vibrant array of activities, bringing an engaging and educational experience to all participants. The special assembly was a highlight, featuring a lively skit that illustrated the fascinating world of mathematics in an entertaining yet informative manner. The day was further enriched by a fun quiz that challenged students' mathematical prowess and encouraged teamwork and problem-solving skills. Various interactive activities were also organized, allowing students to explore mathematical concepts through hands-on experiences. Overall, the celebration fostered a greater appreciation for mathematics and demonstrated its relevance and application in everyday life.

KISAN DIWAS

Kisan Diwas, also known as Farmers Day, holds significant importance as it educates school children about the vital role farmers play in our society. At Sanskriti Kids, the day was commemorated with great enthusiasm, aiming to instill appreciation and respect for the farming community among young minds. The celebration featured a skit that creatively highlighted the daily lives and challenges of farmers, showcasing their dedication and hard work. This was complemented by a series of speeches delivered by students and teachers, emphasizing the contributions of farmers to our nation's economy and food security. The event not only served as an educational experience but also as a reminder of the gratitude owed to those who tirelessly work to sustain us. Such initiatives are crucial in fostering a sense of responsibility and acknowledgment towards the agricultural backbone of the country.

CHRISTMAS

The celebration of Christmas at Sanskriti Kids was a truly enchanting affair, capturing the magic of the season with vibrant decorations and festive activities. The event featured a beautifully adorned Christmas tree, complete with shimmering ornaments and twinkling lights, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. Adding to the festive spirit, a life-sized snow Santa sleigh was showcased, delighting both children and adults alike. A special highlight of the celebration was a skit performed by the talented teachers, which brought the joy and message of Christmas to life. Their engaging performance not only entertained the audience but also emphasized themes of kindness, generosity, and togetherness, making the celebration a memorable experience for everyone involved.

BAGLESS DAY

On Bagless Day, a unique and heartwarming initiative took place at the school, where the principal led a special assembly session focused on gratitude. This day, free from the usual burden of school bags, created an opportunity for reflection and appreciation. During the assembly, students were encouraged to express what they were thankful for, resulting in a colorful tapestry of gratitude. Each child penned down their messages, which were then displayed on a large board for everyone to see. The event took an inclusive turn as parents, too, were invited to share their thoughts and blessings. This collaborative effort between students and parents transformed the board into a vibrant mosaic of thankfulness, highlighting the bonds and values shared within the school community. The initiative served as a reminder of the importance of gratitude and the positive impact it has on fostering a supportive and connected environment.
